

Sandy Smith
Former Vice President IT
Kimball Electronics Group

Sandy Smith is an IT executive with over 30 years of leadership in multiple areas including Customer Service, Project teams, and Enterprise Solutions. Most recently, she was responsible for aligning the company's overall technology direction with the Kimball Electronics business strategy and providing leadership to the IT community across the company. In this role, she collaborated with employees and customers in multiple countries and across all functional areas including manufacturing, purchasing, planning, business development, HR and Finance. In addition, she championed the company's efforts to develop a digital vision and framework focused on meeting customer requirements.

Sandy is recognized for her ability to lead large projects, align teams and growth and development of employees. She has a passion for continuous growth and development and seeks opportunities to help others be and do their best. She is a founding member of a local Women's Organization, Women Empowering Women and was a Kimball Electronics representative for Education in Dubois County and serves as a Board of Director for the Crisis Connection.

She is a graduate of Indiana State University, a certified John Maxwell Trainer and Coach and is ASTD Organizational Change Management certified. Sandy and her husband Brad are the owners of Tell City Pretzels and Sandy is the owner of Roots N Wings, a coaching and speaking business designed to inspire individuals and teams to dig deep and soar high.

